

Situation 1:

In your school they are about to close down all food facilities (dining room, canteen) for financial reasons. Can you do anything about it?

Choose one option

I can actively contribute to the solution of this situation.
I can do something but it is not only up to me.
I can do something but it will not have any impact.
I don't know how I could change this situation.

Justify your choice:

--

Situation 2:

In the media you read about unlawful treatment of asylum seekers in an Australian refugee camp. Can you do anything about it?

Choose one option

I can actively contribute to the solution of this situation.
I can do something but it is not only up to me.
I can do something but it will not have any impact.
I don't know how I could change this situation.

Justify your choice:

--

Situation 3:

In your neighbourhood they want to replace the existing park with a multi-storey car park. Can you do anything about it?

Choose one option

I can actively contribute to the solution of this situation.
I can do something but it is not only up to me.
I can do something but it will not have any impact.
I don't know how I could change this situation.

Justify your choice:

--

Situation 4:

The producer of your favourite clothing brand uses child labour. Can you do anything about it?

Choose one option

I can actively contribute to the solution of this situation.
I can do something but it is not only up to me.
I can do something but it will not have any impact.
I don't know how I could change this situation.

Justify your choice:

--

Situation 5:

In refugee camps in Jordan, only 1 in 2 children go to primary school. Can you do anything about it?

Choose one option

I can actively contribute to the solution of this situation.
I can do something but it is not only up to me.
I can do something but it will not have any impact.
I don't know how I could change this situation.

Justify your choice:

--

Situation 6:

The UK Government are making cuts to education funding which will mean less money for your school. Can you do anything about it?

Choose one option

I can actively contribute to the solution of this situation.
I can do something but it is not only up to me.
I can do something but it will not have any impact.
I don't know how I could change this situation.

Justify your choice:

--