About the WCIA

The Welsh Centre for International Affairs is a registered charity that inspires people in Wales to learn and act on global issues. Our vision is for everyone in Wales to contribute to creating a fairer, more peaceful world.

Our overall aims are:

1. Global Learning - to prepare Wales for our shared future. We inspire people's interest in global issues and develop their understanding of why these issues are relevant to all of our lives.
2. Global Action - to inspire communities and organisations. We support communities and institutions to unite behind global action within Wales.
3. Global Partnerships - to connect Wales and the world. We support worldwide partnerships that strengthen Wales as an outward looking and globally responsible nation.

Based in Cardiff at the Temple of Peace and Health and working with people of all ages throughout Wales, we provide an independent, non-partisan forum for human rights, peace and justice, sustainability and international development.

Summary of Senior Fundraising Manager role:

This is a unique opportunity to play a key role in the future development of the WCIA as we move into a new strategy, alongside the team and stakeholder in Wales and across the world. The role of the Senior Fundraising Manager will be to:

- Work across the organisation to understand funding needs
- Meet ambitious targets across various fundraising streams through making applications, securing new streams of funding and developing new contacts
- Bring and build funder knowledge: create a database of funders, consistent networking, building relationships with funders and being aware of the funding landscape (knowing funders concerns, matchmaking funds to projects, attending events)
- Conduct research into diverse funding with a focus on trusts, foundations and ethical corporate partnerships – in Wales, the UK and global opportunities
- Create a new base funding bid model budget for grant application development
- Develop and manage a sustainable funding strategy and model: expand ethical funding opportunities
